

LIBRARY BD. LIKES PLAN TO GET FEDERAL FUNDS HERE

The board of directors of the Adams County Public Library at its October meeting Friday evening approved in principle a proposal under which the library would seek about $73,000 in federal funds during the next three years for a rural library service demonstration in this county under the Library Services Act.

A board committee had recommended that application be made to the state for the allocation of the federal funds, but the board asked more time to work out operating details of the plan.

Roy Hammond, a member of the board of directors, was added to the special board committee on the project. Attorney Donald Oyler is the committee chairman.

5,000 NEW BOOKS

Oyler's committee submitted a plan to the board under which the county library will apply for federal funds for three years for the presentation of a demonstration of rural library service via bookmobile to all communities in the county not served by libraries of their own. The state would provide a new bookmobile here if the project is approved.

The project would emphasize county library service to adults while regular bookmobile service to the schools of the county is continued under regular library operations. A proposal for renting quarters for the second bookmobile and for housing the 5,000 precatalogued books to be purchased with the federal funds is what the library board wishes to consider further. Many advantages were seen if the whole operation could be handled at the main library but the federal funds cannot be used to erect buildings.

DOERSCHUK HERE

Another feature of the plan would require the employment of a library service coordinator and two clerks. The present library has neither the space nor enough staff to handle the 5,000 book, extra bookmobile project.

$1,500 Donation Heads List Of Library Gifts

A $1,500 gift from the Emma G. Musselman Foundation headed a list of donations recently received by the Adams County public library and reported to the library's board of directors Friday evening.

"The gifts are very, very much appreciated," said Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, the county librarian. "Now we can start buying books again," she added.

In addition to the Musselman Foundation donation, these other gifts were listed: $100 from the Littlestown State Bank, $50 each from the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry, I. D. Crouse and Son, Littlestown; Continental Ceramic Corporation and the Inland Container Corporation; $10 each from the Littleton Shoe Company, James K. Stock and the Arendtsville National Bank; $5 from I. H. Crouse and Sons, Littlestown; $25 from the Littlestown National Bank and $20 from E. C. Livingston, Inc.

STATE MONEY COMING

In a financial report a month ago, library officers said that only through an increase in gifts to the library could the institution end the year "in the black."

Assistant Treasurer Allen S. Stauffer told the directors Friday evening that the gifts just reported "may make it possible for us to just about make it to the end of the year."

Part of the state's appropriation is yet to be received and there is a payment due from Gettysburg borough before the end of the year, it was noted.

The library treasury showed a balance of $1,610 after monthly bills totaling $2,709 were paid. Fines last month brought in $93.85.

TWELVE DONATE BLOOD

Blood donors at the Annie M. Warner Hospital this week were Genevieve Baker, Pen Mar, Md.; Arniel Filsinger, Fairfield; Carroll Plank and Julia Moore, Gettysburg; Leon McSherry, New Oxford; Frank Ursommaro and Jeff Preston, Phi Gamma Delta fraternity; Donald Day, Gardners; Mary Wickline, Milford Wickline and Glenn Rider, Biglerville, and Lester Roth.

Firemen To Show Film Here Today

A motion picture film on "What to Do in Case of Fire" will be shown at various times today, up to 5 o'clock this evening at the engine house on E. Middle St.

Part of the Fire Prevention Week activities of the local firemen, the film was shown to five Cub Pack, two Girl Scout and two kindergarten groups Friday.

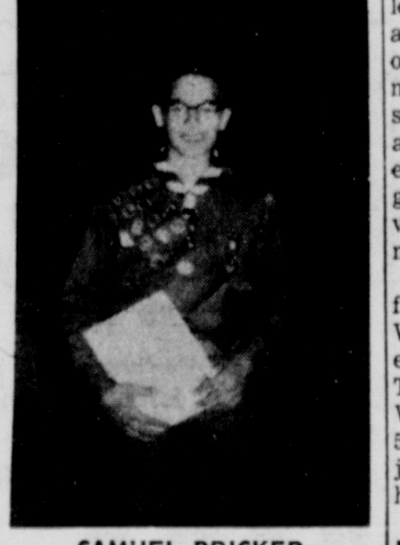

Donald Jacobs, borough fire marshal, said that the film will be shown this afternoon when large enough groups gather at the engine house. He invited Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and others to visit and see the half hour film.

YOUTH GIVEN EAGLE AWARD IN SCOUTING

Samuel Bricker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Bricker, York Springs R. 1, Friday evening was presented with the Eagle award, highest rank in Boy Scouting, at a court of honor held for the York Springs Scouts at the town's elementary school.

He became the first York Springs youth to achieve the honor in the 40 years that there has been Boy Scouting in the York Springs area.

Judge W. C. Sheely, who presented the badge to the Scout's father, with the parents in turn pinning the badge to their son's jacket, spoke in praise of Boy Scouting and of youth.

He noted, "From what we read and hear, we begin to get the feeling that nearly all boys are bad. But nothing could be further from the truth. Only two per cent of the boys of the nation get into serious trouble. Ninety-eight per cent are just as these boys we honor tonight, hardworking, ambitious and will be outstanding citizens as adults. But the minority who do get into

TWIN OAKS TO GET MAILMEN

Straban Twp. Monday will get its first walking postman.

Gettysburg Postmaster Charles W. Pentz said today that door to door mail delivery will start in Twin Oaks development along the Harrisburg Rd. Monday.

With about 35 houses and 100 residents in the area it was decided to start regular residential area delivery to the homes and remove them from Route 6. With all of the homes having their mailboxes at two places on the highway Route 6 carrier also will receive considerable relief by the change.

The postmaster said Adam Myers and Paul Grube will "more or less" divide the Twin Oaks deliveries between them as part of their duties.

The addition of Twin Oaks to the regular "city residential" deliveries caused the addition of a number of additional homes to the route of other of the six carriers in order to permit time for the Twin Oaks deliveries.

Postmaster Pentz also announced the placing of a mail box at the corner of Gettys St. and Fairview Ave. to serve the residents of that area.

Two Men Injured In Morning Crash

Two men were injured when their car struck guard posts along the Quaker Valley Rd., three miles north of Gettysburg, shortly after midnight this morning.

State police said Dempsey Winco, 20, Biglerville R. 1, was driving the car and lost control after rounding a curve. Damage to the auto was estimated at $700.

Winco, who suffered a laceration of the forehead, and a passenger in his car, Calvin Norman, 20, Biglerville R. 1, who had contusions and abrasions of the hands and knees and body bruises, were removed to the Warner Hospital in the car of a brother of the driver, Ellis Winco. They were treated at the hospital and discharged.

AID CENTER APPEALS FOR GAS HEATER

The Gettysburg Brethren Service Center today appealed for a gas space heater for the home of a young couple and their two young children. Kenneth Foust, of the Brethren Service committee, said the couple is "most deserving."

According to Foust, the young husband is suffering from muscular dystrophy and is able to find only partial employment.

Foust said the Brethren Service committee has no gas heaters available nor has it been able to purchase any second-hand from dealers in the area. He said no funds were available from state welfare agencies for such purchases, nor was the Red Cross able to find a space heater for the family.

He added that the center also has need of other furniture and supplies to be distributed as needed to deserving families in the county area.

Persons who may wish to donate a heater, or other articles, should contact Foust at Kenzie's Market, ED 4-2447; Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons Jr., ED 4-4946; Edward Walters ED 4-2072, or Harman's Store, Mummaburg; Gilbert's Market, Biglerville, or Plank's Service, Greenmount.

The Brethren Service Center, located in the Brethren Church along the Biglerville Rd. north of here, is open Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock. Foust said persons who may wish to aid in repairing donated furniture, etc., preparatory to its being given to deserving families, may visit the center any Tuesday night during the hours it is open.

He also noted that a group from here will spend next Wednesday at New Windsor processing clothing for World Relief. The contingent will be at New Windsor working from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Persons who may wish to join the group should contact him.

FINE INDIAN ON SCHOOL COUNT

Chief Split Cloud, a full-blooded Indian who conducts the "Indian Village" along Lincoln Highway West, paid a $2 fine and costs to Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Friday evening on a charge by Franklin Twp. attendance officer C. C. Culp of failing to send his daughter to school regularly.

The Indian chief was arrested Friday evening by Constable Joel D. Musselman at the "village." Musselman had gone to Split Cloud's residence at Biglerville R. 2 and the Chief told him he would be back in an hour.

At the hearing Split Cloud told Snyder that his daughter was enrolled in a correspondence course out of Baltimore. But Snyder read the school attendance law which, Snyder said, "rules out anything of that nature."

Chief Cloud also indicated that he was not a resident of the state but Snyder read another section which said that "all migratory children of school age" must attend classes regularly.

The rule states that private tutors are acceptable under the law if approved by the county superintendent of schools. The instruction must also be done in the English language.

FOLK SINGER WILL APPEAR AT COLLEGE

Josh White, widely known folk singer, will give a lecture-demonstration at a student assembly in the Student Union Building at Gettysburg College, Wednesday morning. He is on a concert tour of the United States.

During the past year, White has appeared on the CBS and NBC television networks and on BBC and Granada television in England. While abroad he gave concerts in England, Sweden, Denmark, Israel and other foreign countries.

He has given concerts at Colby, Middlebury, M.I.T., Williams, Brown and other colleges in the northeast and in the cities of Boston, New Haven, New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

PLAYED FOR FDR

Learning to play the guitar at an early age, White developed his talent specializing in Negro spirituals and the blues, which led him to New York for a recording session. He sang his spirituals and recorded a few blues which established his reputation as a singer.

The late President Roosevelt heard White's record album, "Southern Exposure," and invited him to the White House to sing.

In 1950 Mrs. Roosevelt took White as her protegee on a concert tour of Europe. When he returned to the States, he made three movies and has continued his concert tours at home and abroad.

TO SHOW FILM

The Gettysburg Travel Council will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Varsity Diner. Among matters of business will be a vote on the budget of $600 for folders to be secured jointly with other nearby Travel Councils to promote visitation to the South Central part of Pennsylvania. A motion picture on the Re-enactment at Manassas will be shown.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Wreckage Of Airliner Is Spotted In Pyrenees

TOULOUSE, France (AP) — Wreckage of a plane—apparently a British airliner missing with 34 persons aboard—was found today in mountains near Prades, about 30 miles from Perpignan, police at Prades announced.

The wreckage was spotted by residents in the area of the Canigou Peak of the Pyrenees at an altitude of some 6,000 feet.

Weather in the area was reported bad. Mt. Canigou, which is mined for iron ore, rises to 9,137 feet.

The British plane, a Dakota, dropped from sight on a flight from Gatwick Airport near London to Perpignan, a regional commercial center of 65,000 in southern France about 10 miles from the Mediterranean and 20 from the Spanish frontier.

When it failed to arrive, police in southern France were alerted to search for the aircraft.

Perpignan is about 20 miles north of the Spanish border.

Police at Carcassonne, about 50 miles southeast of Toulouse, said they had received several telephone calls from persons reporting they heard "a big plane circling overhead" early today.

Search parties were ordered into the Pyrenees Mountains foothills near here.

Carcassonne lies between Toulouse and Perpignan.

In London, a British Ministry of Aviation spokesman said the missing airliner belonged to Derby Aviation, an affiliate of United Airways. It was bound for Marseille with 34 aboard, including the crew, and was several hours overdue, the spokesman added.

The plane reportedly only had a flying range of about five hours.

Assault, Battery Charge Is Dropped

An assault and battery charge against David Harlow Jr., Cash-town, was dropped prior to a hearing Friday evening before Justice of the Peace Anna E. Thompson.

Borough police filed the charge after an incident on Chambersburg St. September 23 in which Harlow allegedly struck Melvin Showers, 34, N. Franklin St. As Showers fell, his head struck a window sill box knocking him out.

Harlow agreed to pay the costs and hospital bills for Showers, amounting to $48.

DR. OSBORNE'S SKETCHES ON DISPLAY HERE

Gettysburg as it may look next June is on display today at the town's two banks.

The colored sketches made by Dr. Milton Osborne for the 125 business places and buildings within the first two blocks of the square for "Campaign Gettysburg," have been placed by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the lobbies of the First National Bank of Gettysburg and the Gettysburg National Bank so that everyone may see the suggested changes by which the town will "create our historic image," according to the slogan of the campaign.

The sketches give an idea of what the town can look like with a minimum change in present structures. Estimates of the cost of any given change shows none higher than $900. The average is about $250.

The Junior Chamber simultaneously announced that it has made arrangements with Dr. Osborne to provide sketches to merchants or property owners in the area outside the first two blocks of the town. Through the Saturday Evening Post, the sketches for the structures and businesses in the first two blocks were secured free of charge for the owners and merchants there. Those outside the two-block area will have to pay a minimum fee if they wish sketches made of their areas.

The Jaycees said they do not as yet have a price on the cost of the sketches, but that they will supply free of charge sketches to the first 25 borough merchants or property owners outside the central area who sign to participate. They said the offer was made to encourage participation by the entire town in the project to beautify the community by giving it an architectural entity. Requests for sketches are to be made to Harold Ecker, community contact chairman for the event.

800 EXPECTED TO ATTEND GOP DINNER OCT. 26

Congressman William W. Scranton of the Tenth District of Pennsylvania will be the principal speaker at the Adams County Republican fund raising dinner to be held in the Gettysburg College dining hall October 26 beginning at 7:15 o'clock. H. Earl Pitzer, chairman of the Adams County Republican Committee, announced today. Former President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower will be guests of honor.

Pitzer said the banquet will be open to everyone in Adams County regardless of party affiliation. "Local interest in the two-party system leads to good local government and, this reason, we are offering tickets to anyone who wishes to purchase them," he said.

Atty. Charles W. Wolf, chairman of the event, said that tickets have been priced at $10 a person "to give a greater number of people a chance to attend."

PRIORITY TO COUNTIANS

Wolf said that Adams Countians will be given priority on tickets. He added that preparations are being made to seat 800 at the steak dinner.

Tickets may be secured from any Republican committeeman of Adams County; Attorney Wolf; fund chairman Orville B. Orner; dinner chairman S. Blaine Miller; ticket chairman William C. Varian Jr., or at Shuman's Drug Store, Baltimore St.

Wolf said that this will be the first GOP dinner that Eisenhower has attended here.

Fred G. Pfeffer, state committeeman, will be master of ceremonies. A special table will be set for officials of local and national government and one for county candidates in the November election.

SISTER DIES OF CORONARY

Sister Mary Anita Sullivan, 64, a Sister of Mercy at St. Aloysius Catholic Church convent, Littlestown, for the last 12 years, died early this morning in the Warner Hospital following a coronary attack. She had been admitted to the hospital about 11:30 o'clock. Death occurred about 2 a.m.

Sister Mary Anita was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sullivan of Lebanon and was the last survivor of their family of 14.

A brother, Father Patrick Sullivan, was pastor of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here about 40 years ago. Two of her sisters were members of the Order of St. Joseph. A number of nieces and nephews are her only survivors.

Sister Mary Anita taught the Fifth and Sixth grades in the Littlestown Parochial school. She had entered a convent first in 1923.

Funeral services Monday morning at 9 o'clock when there will be a requiem high mass at Mercy Crest Convent, Harrisburg, with Rev. Dr. John Metz as celebrant. Burial in Holy Cross Cemetery at Harrisburg.

The Littlestown Parochial School will be closed Monday because of the funeral and will remain closed Tuesday and Wednesday for institute sessions at Harrisburg.

Gettysburg's SUV Friday voted a protest against the plans of the state commission for the observance of the 100th anniversary of the battle here banning any re-enactment of the battle. The local camp in its action voted to write the commission of its hopes that the commission will change its mind, noting that re-enactments were conducted at reunions of the veterans here during prior anniversaries and were highly educational for the veterans and their descendants.

Dr. Joseph H. Riley, commander of the local camp, said he will ask every camp of the SUV in the state to join Gettysburg in protesting the re-enactment ban.

TO FORM COUNCIL

The local SUV voted to join in a meeting October 12 at 8 p.m. at the GAR home of representatives of the SUV, Auxiliary of the SUV, Daughters of Union Veterans and Ladies of the GAR to form a council of Allied Orders of the GAR of Gettysburg. The council, to be made up of the presidents and secretaries of the various groups, plus one member elected from each group as delegate, will coordinate activities of the GAR affiliated bodies.

Preliminary plans were discussed for the fifth annual observance of Remembrance Day, honoring the GAR, to be held November 18. Named to the committee were Commander Riley, John Stark, Arthur Warman, Paul Snyder, David Tawney, Chester Schriver, Richard Dracha and Chester Behney. Additional members are to be named to the committee in the near future, Dr. Riley said.

Invitations have been sent to state and national heads of the various GAR affiliated organizations. Dr. Riley said, and so far all of the state and several of the national heads have reported plans to be here for the Remembrance Day program.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Oliver Hoffman, 29, New Midway, Md., received treatment Friday for a laceration of the left thumb sustained while working.

PAYS FINE AND COSTS

Joseph E. Barley, Plainfield, N. J., paid a $10 fine and costs to Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Friday evening on a charge of passing at an intersection filed by borough police.

GETTYSBURG IS URGED AS SUV HEADQUARTERS

The committee set up by the state Sons of Union Veterans to study the possibility of establishing a state and national headquarters for the SUV will report that Gettysburg is its choice for a site, John Stark, chairman of the committee, reported at Friday night's meeting of the local camp of the SUV in the GAR home, E. Middle St.

With the Gettysburg camp giving its permission for such a plan, Stark's committee will report to the state group that it recommends a two-story addition be made to the rear of the GAR home on E. Middle St. to house offices and museum of the state and national organization.

Plans for such a structure were discussed at the last convention of the SUV at Harrisburg and at that time the committee was asked to study the feasibility of a plan whereby the relics and records of the numerous SUV camps and relics and records of the former GAR posts could be brought under one roof for preservation and display to the public. In addition, office space could be provided at the museum for the state and national headquarters of the SUV, and if they wish, the other allied orders of the GAR.

TO SEND PROTEST

The local SUV Friday night gave its permission for use of its ground for such a structure. Discussion indicated that a space approximately 65 by 90 feet will be available if the plan is adopted. Stark said all members of the committee "were enthused" over the Gettysburg plan and that if final approval is given by the entire membership a campaign for funds will begin next June.

GETTYSBURG'S SUV FRIDAY VOTED

Gettysburg's SUV Friday voted a protest against the plans of the state commission for the observance of the 100th anniversary of the battle here banning any re-enactment of the battle. The local camp in its action voted to write the commission of its hopes that the commission will change its mind, noting that re-enactments were conducted at reunions of the veterans here during prior anniversaries and were highly educational for the veterans and their descendants.

Dr. Joseph H. Riley, commander of the local camp, said he will ask every camp of the SUV in the state to join Gettysburg in protesting the re-enactment ban.

MAN RESCUES NEIGHBOR, THEN HIS OWN SON

DUNCANNON, Pa. (AP)—"One was my friend, the other my son. . . I knew I had to get them both out of there."

That was the modest reaction today of Gerald Liddick, a 43-year-old service station operator who dragged an unconscious neighbor from his flaming home, then heroically dashed back inside to rescue his own 19-year-old son, trapped in another room.

Liddick said he and his son John, were sitting on their front porch Friday night when they first spotted smoke and flames pouring from the home of their neighbor, S. Vallie Dunkelberger, 74.

"We both grabbed fire extinguishers from my garage and raced to the house," the elder Liddick said.

CRAWLED ON FLOOR
"I kicked in the front door and crawled along the floor to the living room I found Mr. Dunkelberger unconscious on a sofa. I caught hold of him by the arms and dragged him out the same way I came in."

Liddick said he was walking around the burning structure to get some fresh air when he saw his son, gasping for breath inside the dining room.

Liddick ran through the front door again. He reached his son, tossed him through a window and tumbled out after him just as flames engulfed the room.

"Apparently Johnny had climbed into the house through a window," Liddick explained. "He's a brave kid and deserves a lot of credit for doing what he did."

Both Dunkelberger and the boy were treated at the scene by Dr. Paul Karlik of Duncannon. Dunkelberger was later admitted to Polyclinic Hospital in Harrisburg suffering from burns and smoke inhalation.

"Beyond a doubt, the man would have died if it hadn't been for the Liddicks getting there when they did," Assistant Fire Chief Eugene Dowdick said after the blaze was brought under control.

Cause of the fire was not learned.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the form of a "backwards program." The president, Mrs. Stanley Buntun, urges all members to be present. There will be a social hour.

The PCBL will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock in Xavier School cafeteria.

Thirty-three members of the Daughters of the American Revolution were guests of the Cliff Arquette Enterprises on a bus tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield Friday afternoon. Enroute, sandwiches were served by the following members of the hostess committee: Mrs. Eric Ruckelshaus, Mrs. Charles A. Morgenthau, Miss Verna Schwartz, Mrs. John E. Hostetter and Miss Alice Black.

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, regent, and Mrs. Guile W. Lefever will represent the Gettysburg chapter at the 65th Pennsylvania Conference to be held at the Penn-Harris Hotel, Harrisburg, October 9, 10 and 11.

The Alpha Xi Delta alumni will hold a breakfast Sunday morning at the Lamp Post Tea Room at 8:45 o'clock for the pledges of the chapter.

Mrs. Vivian Staub, Chambersburg St., is a patient at the University Hospital, Baltimore.

The Women of the Moose will observe "Christmas in October" at a meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Moose home. Mrs. Carrie Rhine, Mooseheart chairman, will be in charge of the program.

Anyone wishing to donate Christmas gifts may see the "needed" list on the bulletin board at the home. Cash donations for the project will also be accepted. Gifts are to be brought to the meeting.

Enrollment will be held with officers, escorts and committee chairmen, wearing white gowns. Refreshments will be served.

Circle III of Christ Lutheran Church will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the church parlor. The topic, "Churches for New Times," will be presented by Mrs. Reginald Deitz.

The Gettysburg Fire Company Auxiliary will hold a Halloween costume party Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the dining hall at the Recreation Field. Prizes will be awarded. Articles for the bazaar will be displayed. Mrs. Edward Paris is entertainment chairman and Mrs. Charles Kerrigan is refreshments chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Cole Jr. and son, Timothy, Allentown, are spending the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cole, Buchanan Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Mares Sherman, E. Broadway.

MAY DEAL WITH EAST GERMANS

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany now stands ready to enlarge its "administrative and technical relations" with the Communist regime of East Germany to help solve the Berlin crisis, authoritative sources said Friday.

This could eventually mean negotiations between the two Germanys on access rights to West Berlin.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk has sounded out West German Ambassador Walter Grew on the possibility of such negotiations, the informants said, and a decision on this point is pending.

Access rights between West Germany and West Berlin are one of the big issues in the Berlin crisis. The Soviet Union has promised to guarantee them provided agreements are entered into with the East German regime.

West Germany previously has balked at being a party to such agreements because it refuses to recognize East Germany officially.

The authoritative sources said this position would not have to be sacrificed if new contracts with the Communist regime are considered administrative and technical. This country handles its large-scale trade with East Germany on such a basis.

Emmitsburg

MRS. RALPH LONG

EMMITTSBURG — President of the Francis X. Elder American Legion Post on Tuesday evening Madeline Harner presided at the monthly meeting of the Auxiliary to Francis X. Elder American Legion Post, on Tuesday evening in the auxiliary room of the post home at which 16 members were present. Ten members attended the district meeting held at Hampstead recently. The next district meeting will be held November 19. Ann Shorb reported 49 members are enrolled. The refreshment committee for next month includes Ann Topper, Dian Small and Ann Shorb. The draw prize was won by Margaret Shorb. After the meeting the ladies joined the men of the post for refreshments.

Commander J. Ward Kerrigan presided at the monthly meeting of the Legion Tuesday evening in the post home at which 29 members and two guests, District Commander Arthur Haines and Past District Commander Herman Shook, were present. One blood donor, Roger Adams, was reported for September. A donation of $10 was voted for the United Appeal Fund of Frederick County. Harold Hoke was appointed chairman of the Halloween parade committee to be held October 31 or, in the case of rain, November 1. The parade will form at 6 p.m. at the Doughboy, W. Main St., and will move at 7 p.m. Hoke appointed the following committees to assist: Judges and prizes, J. Ward Kerrigan and Charles B. Harner; posters, Thomas Saylor; refreshments, Andrew Shorb, Curtis Topper and Clarence Shorb; numbers and band, Harold Hoke.

The Commanders and Adjutants Fall Conference will be held October 7 and 8 at the War Memorial in Baltimore. District Commander Haines spoke briefly on membership, Camp West Mar and the oratorical contest which is held annually throughout the state.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 72 met Tuesday evening with their leaders Mrs. Ralph Ohler and Mrs. Charles Shorb. The girls rehearsed for the program to be presented Friday evening at the community show in the Emmitsburg High School. Next week at the regular meeting the girls will work on second class and badges in preparation for the court of awards to be held October 20.

The Emmitsburg High School PTA will sponsor a food sale October 14 in the fire hall beginning at 9 a.m. The group will also sponsor a hop November 3 in the high school auditorium from 8 to 11 p.m.

A three-fold birthday dinner was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Shorb in honor of the birthdays of their son, Thomas, their son-in-law, Fred Gebhart, and Mrs. Shorb's mother, Mrs. Charles Wagerman. All three observe their birthdays this month. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagerman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gebhart and daughter of Bonnevillie and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shorb and daughter of Union Bridge.

It was incorrectly stated in Wednesday's issue of The Times that Mrs. Thornton Rodgers and Mrs. George Brown were co-chairmen of the ball bazaar to be held November 11 for St. Joseph's Catholic Church. It should have read that Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. Brown were co-chairmen of the evening of games held Monday evening in St. Euphemia's Hall.

PROBE DEATH OF 2 STUDENTS

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP)—Authorities are depending on results of an autopsy to clear up the mystery deaths of two University of North Carolina students in the dormitory room they shared.

"We can't give any diagnosis until the autopsy is complete," acting Coroner George Cannady said Friday night.

Cannady said it probably would be two or three days before the autopsy report is ready on the bodies of William Henry Harrison Johnson Jr., 24, and James Michael Barham, 21.

The bodies, in their beds and dressed in night clothes, were found Friday by a janitor who went to their room to investigate when they failed to appear for their jobs at the university dining hall.

"UNKNOWN CAUSES"

Johnson, from Statesville, was a graduate student in industrial relations. Barham, a junior, was from Burlington.

The postmortem was ordered after a coroner's jury ruled that the young men had died "by unknown causes." Superficial examinations, authorities said, disclosed no evidence of foul play.

Only Thursday, Robert S. Mauldin, 33, of Bessemer City, N.C., a dental school laboratory photographer and former graduate student, was found dead under similar but apparently unrelated circumstances. Cannady had ruled Mauldin's death due to natural causes and no autopsy was performed.

Pearl E. Peters, Oxford Twp., sold a property in that township for $8,500 to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Groat, Mt. Pleasant Twp.

Paul Cornbow and Levere Wentz, executors in the estate of Maggie A. Wildasin, McSherrytown, sold a property in McSherrytown for $8,250 to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin D. Bell, McSherrytown.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron L. Hoffman, Arendtsville, sold two properties in that borough for $2,000 to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall W. Longanecker, Butler Twp.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin E. Myers, Reading Twp., sold a property in that township for $1,600 to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Spahr, Reading Twp.

Stella M. Trimmer, Straban Twp., sold a property in that township for $100 to Mr. and Mrs. John E. Snyder, Straban Twp.

One Local Holds Key To End Strike

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — Local 600 of the United Auto Workers Union—often called the biggest union local in the country—appeared today to hold the key to settlement of the UAW's strike against Ford Motor Co.

The strike began Tuesday and has idled 120,000 production workers at 88 plants in 26 states.

Local 600 represents more than 30,000 of the strikers at the Rouge industrial complex in Dearborn, Mich. It contains 17 of the 85 bargaining units are among 36 as yet not settled.

"Without the Rouge, nobody works," said one union man. "We have to wrap it up there."

Lion Slashes Trainer's Hand

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A male lion reached through its cage and seized its trainer Friday, slashing and bruising the man's hand.

The trainer, Walter Hayes, 34, said the lion did not hold him, and he was able to walk away. He said he was feeding meat to the lion in the same cage but the other animal, a female, remained quiet.

Hayes of Delaware, Ohio, is a trainer for the Paul Miller Circus, playing in nearby East Norriton Township.

COATESVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Four men were killed today when their automobile struck a utility pole on a rural road one mile south of Coatesville.

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev approved Friday the erection of the wall between East and West Berlin.

This was not surprising, since the East Germans closed East Berlin's border with West Berlin Aug. 13 immediately after the Soviet bloc Warsaw Pact members ordered effective border controls to stop the flood of escaping refugees.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has decreed that military speakers at private seminars must stick to military subjects, avoid partisan expressions and must not challenge established policy.

DEATH

Adolphus E. Thums

Adolphus E. Thums, 66, of Newark, N.J., who died Thursday at Pottstown Hospital, will be buried Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock in Biglerville Cemetery following graveside services.

A native of Sidney, N.Y., a son of the late Arthur and Annie (Kirby) Thums, he was a veteran of World War I, and was a real estate broker. He had gone to Pottstown to visit friends, became ill, was removed to the hospital and death followed an operation.

In addition to his wife, the former Anna Stover; a brother, Bert Thums, Newark, N.J., and a sister, Mrs. Lillian Jameson, Irvington, N.J., he is survived by number of more distant relatives in the Biglerville area.

Funeral services Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Cole Funeral Home, Newark, N.J. Local arrangements are being made through the Bender Funeral Home.

BULLETINS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)

The Soviet Union will boycott any interim U.N. secretary-general who may be chosen without the consent of the Security Council.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin told reporters at a Sudanese reception here Friday night that, if the General Assembly picks a successor to the late Dag Hammarskjold without the council's prior recommendation, "life will go very hard for that man."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite a two-hour conference between President Kennedy and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, the United States and the Soviet Union were reported still far apart today on ways of negotiating a peaceful settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Informed officials here consider the East-West dispute over Berlin still extremely dangerous. At the same time hope persists that a solution short of a military showdown will be found to end the crisis.

BERLIN (AP) — An apparent switch from the hard to the soft sell by Communist leaders boosted hopes today for an easing of tension and possible postponement of an East-West showdown on Berlin.

Statements by Soviet Premier Khrushchev, Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan and East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht all pointedly avoided reference to a signing this year of the Communist bloc's planned peace treaty with East Germany.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman William E. Miller said Friday the Kennedy administration was guilty of censorship, favoritism and "attempting to use reporters as political propaganda conduits."

Writing in Editor and Publisher, a newspaper trade magazine, Miller, a New York congressman, said Americans "right to know is being cruelly eroded and will continue to be until this administration comes to regard information as a public trust rather than a political puff operation."

SNOW, COLD ARE FORECAST FOR THIS YEAR

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Squirrels will wear mink coats, rabbits will wrap up in beaver stoles, and human beings had best simply find a cozy corner and park there for the winter's duration. On that lugubrious chord John Baer's 1962 agricultural almanac makes its bow today.

In all the 137 years history of this famed Pennsylvania Dutch standby, few weather forecasts have been more numbing.

Shivering at their own sagacity, the publishers say: "We can no longer call a spade a spade. We've got to call it a snowshovel, and, brother, will it ever get a workout this winter."

GLOOMY OUTLOOK

If Americans, particularly in East and Midwest, thought last winter was tough, they'd better beware of what's coming, says the almanac, for "old-fashioned winter will set new styles in snow, cold and blows this season."

Trouble with all this, however, is that you have to separate the grim from the gay. Baer's, like most people who swear by it, has a playful side earthy, extravagant, expansive. One minute it is solemnly oracular, the next it is off on an outrageous spoof.

For example it would have you believe this winter will match one of old that was so cold a candle flame froze solid on a Pennsylvania Dutchman's kitchen table. What did he do? He threw the flame, now an icicle, into the woodshed. Next day, the yarn goes, the flame thawed, setting the shed afire.

TURNIPS ON MART TODAY

Turnips at 20 cents a box made their initial appearance on the Farmers' Market this morning while apples and potatoes continued in large supply and better quantity. Grimes Golden, Red Delicious and Smokehouse apples sold at 20 cents a box, 50 and 55 cents a half peck, 80 cents a peck and $1.50 a half bushel. Irish potatoes were 25 cents a quarter peck or 40 cents a half peck.

As the Halloween season draws near, pumpkins were plentiful in good color. They sold from five to 25 cents each.

Other prices included: Sweet corn, 30 cents a dozen; plums, 25 cents a box; peaches, 30 cents a quarter peck or 50 cents a half peck; red beets, 10 cents a bunch; eggplants, five and 10 cents a piece; peppers, five cents a piece or 20 cents a box; sweet potatoes 30 and 35 cents a box; cabbage, six cents a pound; squash, five to 15 cents a piece; Seckel pears, 20 cents a quart box; Bartlett pears, 25 cents a box; tomatoes, 30 cents a box; green beans, 25 cents a box; lettuce, 15 cents a box; endive, 10 cents a box; broccoli, 15 cents a bunch, and parsley, 10 cents a bunch.

Fresh quince jelly was 25 cents a half pint and Indian corn sold for 10 cents an ear. Chicken held at 50 cents a pound as did eggs at 60 and 65 cents a dozen.

Chiffon cakes, pies, cottage cheese, potato salad and other homemade specialties sold at various prices.

Russia Fires 18th Nuclear Explosion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union has fired its 18th nuclear explosion in the atmosphere since the Russians' current test series began Sept. 1.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said the test device was detonated early Friday in the vicinity of Novaya Zemlya.

The AEC's statement on the explosion, coming hours after Paris and Tokyo had reported it, said the blast had a yield of several megatons. A megaton is equivalent to the energy released by a million tons of TNT.

The U.S. agency has attributed yields of several megatons to at least four previous Soviet tests, including one three days ago.

French government detection services, first to report the explosion, called it the biggest yet. Japanese experts estimated its strength at 10 megatons.

"ON SUNDAY"

Sunday is a day of rest . . . for almost all mankind . . . when we should take accounting . . . and gather peace of mind . . . a day for adoration . . . in the church we choose . . . when we can muster once again . . . the faith we're prone to lose . . . Sunday is a day of love . . . a time God set aside . . . to offer prayers of thankfulness . . . for the homes where we abide . . . comparing it to other days . . . we will find, I'm sure . . . Sunday offers tired hearts . . . strength to long endure . . . even if we have to work . . . on this special day . . . we travel with a lighter heart . . . as we make our way . . . so I welcome Sunday . . . and its blessed thrills . . . it's a quiet valley . . . between the weekday hills.

Littlestown

LITTLESTOWN — Preliminary plans for the annual banquet in November of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club, Inc., were made at a meeting of the club Thursday evening in the clubhouse "Sunset Hill Farm" near town. Arrangements will be in charge of Irvin DeGroot and Harry DeGroot. Entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. George Basehoar. President Irvin DeGroot presided. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Clapsdale. The club will meet again November 2.

A bowling team for men of the various churches of the Littlestown area is being organized at Banker's Lanes. Those interested are asked to notify Robert B. DeGroot. Matches will be bowled Thursday nights beginning October 12. An organization meeting will be held at 7 p.m. Monday at Banker's.

St. James' United Church of Christ, Harney Rd., will serve a turkey and oyster supper November 4 at 4 p.m.

Nathan Hollinger, Fred W. King and Paul E. King will be in charge of the program at the meeting of the Men's Brotherhood of St. John's Lutheran Church Monday at 8 p.m. at the church. Refreshments will be served by Edgar E. Yealy, John Bloom and the Rev. William C. Karns.

The girls of Scout Troop 730, formerly Troop 56, continued work on their dabbler badge at the recent meeting at the engine house. Mrs. James H. Spalding, Mrs. George Rhodes and Mrs. Fred Hartlaub were the leaders. The troop will not meet next week. Mrs. William Bensel, a registered nurse, will demonstrate first aid as a first-class requirement at the next meeting after school on Monday, October 16, at the engine house when plans will be made for a cookout on October 23.

School Menus

GETTYSBURG ELEMENTARY

Wednesday — Baked beef loaf, orange glazed carrots, applesauce, cinnamon bun and milk.

Thursday — Navy bean soup with ham, egg salad sandwich, white grapes, graham cracker cookie and milk.

Friday — Orange juice, baked salmon loaf, buttered peas, iced gingerbread and milk.

FAIRFIELD SCHOOL

Wednesday — Spaghetti and meat sauce, sliced cheese and crackers, fruit salad.

Thursday — Hot dog on roll, mashed potatoes, sauerkraut, fruit juice.

Friday — Fish sticks, buttered noodles, green beans, Jello with fruit.

Bread, butter and the choice of white or chocolate milk will be served with each meal.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sam Rayburn's long, unchallenged reign as speaker of the House of Representatives apparently has cleared the way for an orderly succession by Majority Leader John W. McCormack to Rayburn's seat of power—at least temporarily.

The grip of the strong-willed, but kindly Texan on the speaker'ship has been so strong no rival faction ever developed. And his tenure has been so long the ambitions of any potential rivals have cooled with age.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—A retired official of the Bethlehem Steel Co. and his chauffeur were killed Friday in an accident on the Chesapeake Bay Bridge.

State police identified the victims as Jack M. Willis, 76, retired general manager of the Bethlehem Steel Co. in Baltimore, and his chauffeur and butler, Milton Lewis, 62, of Baltimore.

Irvin Bengal, Gettysburg R. 4, is certain the population explosion is reaching the canine world. His 16-month-old French poodle named Cindy had her first brood Thursday — eight hardy youngsters. Bengal said normally poodles have litters of two to four.

Gettysburg Schools Report

The pattern of education in the nation's schools this year is one of adding a fourth R . . . "rigor" to the curriculum. As was announced by our superintendent some time ago, students in our schools are being required to take additional courses, new and challenging materials and equipment have been added and additional faculty members have been secured to contribute to the competency of instruction.

It is well known that the demands of the times necessitate that today's student 1. needs as much education as possible for success and happiness in our American society and 2. he should pursue his studies with a rigorous and enthusiastic purpose.

Since our schools are updating and strengthening their requirements, which the students are aware of, it is most essential that parents become vitally interested in the progress that his or her child is making in relation to the present school demands. Success in school just doesn't happen . . . parents must enhance a healthy attitude of school within the family unit, show evidence of enthusiasm and encouragement to the child and frequently visit the school and the teacher. Such visitations frequently dispel some of the doubts of instruction and give first hand knowledge as to the intent and purpose of essential learning.

SOME SUGGESTIONS

In addition to the necessity for more parental involvement concerning your child's progress, the following specific suggestions in which parents can control and assist should be most helpful in realizing the goal of a successful and happy student.

IF YOU HAVE A 2- TO 5-YEAR-OLD

Teachers can usually "spot" those youngsters who have had few opportunities to play with children their own age. Preschoolers who play with other children before school starts adjust more quickly to school life.

If your child has had few chances to play with others, invite children to your home—or take him to the playground. If your child is accustomed to being away from home and mother, he will find it much easier to adjust to school. Then too, leaving home to go to school will come as a pleasant experience rather than a psychological shock.

IF YOU HAVE A 6- TO 10-YEAR-OLD

Teachers know that parents can increase their child's mental alertness, during the early elementary school years. You can do this by exposing your child to a rich variety of family activities. Take him on trips, to children's plays and concerts. Expose him to good art and music, surround him with many books and magazines.

Do not compare his behavior or school work with that of his classmates or his brothers and sisters. Children develop at different rates of speed. Each has his own rate of growth and maturity. Your child may be a slow developer. Look for ways to help and encourage him.

IF YOU HAVE A 11- TO 17-YEAR-OLD

Students in the junior high school want to know the "why" of what they are learning. Teachers advise parents to encourage family discussions on a variety of topics and to make a point of tracking down the facts behind general statements. Your youngster will enjoy airing his opinions, and he will be learning to think critically and to check facts.

When school comes, can homework be far behind? It's a wise parent who prepares himself and his child for a school year that will surely include much work at home designed to supplement and broaden work done in the classroom.

If you are like most parents, you favor homework, provided it's reasonable in amount, geared to your child's abilities, really teaches him something, and is of a type that doesn't throw the whole household into a state of confusion. You'll find teachers assigning children original research projects perhaps to answer questions that come up and can't be answered in busy class time.

AVOID DISTRACTION

In other words, most schools feel that homework should be an extension of the learning activity, with assignments that can be done better away from school. You can help by giving your child a quiet corner that can be his homework island of peace and concentration. You may need to be firm, too, in eliminating some of the distractions that interfere with getting homework done—including TV and little brothers.

Success in school is the result of good planning, careful budgeting of time and knowing how to listen. Have your child budget his after-school hours. Have him schedule his time between study, sports, hobbies, outside reading and social activities. Don't allow interruptions during study periods. Train your child to be a good listener.

Have him study in an organized way. Don't let him just plunge in and wade through the heavy material in the textbook. First read the summary of the chapter's contents. Then read headings and subheadings throughout the chap-

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Helman, Sr., York Springs, were guests of honor at a 45th wedding anniversary celebration Sunday, afternoon and evening at their home. The affair was arranged by the couples children.

More than 125 guests attended the open house. There were flower arrangements by friends and a number of gifts.

There were guests from Harrisburg, Dover, York, Biglerville, Dillsburg, Hazover and Hunt-

Ernest Doerschuk Jr., director of extension for the state library, who assisted in the preparation of the demonstration project application for the county library, attended the meeting at the main library Friday evening and explained its features.

He explained that during the three-year operation of the demonstration project with federal funds here, the local support for the library will be expected to increase annually a least $2,700 so that, at the end of the project, local support for the library will be at a level to qualify it for state aid under the new state library bill.

The board, receiving a report on a promised review of staff salaries, voted a $600 increase in the appropriation for salaries in 1962 and made the boost effective October 1 of this year.

PAINTING FINISHED

The board met in the main library room which has just been repainted along with all of the first floor and the stairway to the second floor. Property Committee Chairman Don Becker said landscaping is progressing about the building and shrubbery will arrive in 10 days. He said the Jaycees are spending $400 on the exterior work and the board directed a letter of appreciation be sent them.

The directors reappointed Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, the librarian, to represent the library on the Adams County Council of Community Services but decided no dues will be paid again this year.

BOOK LOANS UP

Mrs. Wilson reported the library sent 150 books to the Biglerville school library recently for the beginning of a new public library service there. She also announced the receipt of a memorial book from Mr. and Mrs. J. Richard Haskins in memory of Don C. Miller.

The librarian's report showed book loans last month totaled 7,021 and exceeded the total of 5,495 for September of last year. The bookmobile traveled 245 miles and more than 50 new library users were registered.

President H. Thomas Pyle presided over the meeting with nine members and Mrs. Wilson in attendance. It was the largest attended board meeting in months.

Abbottstown

ABBOTTSTOWN—The Flaming Knights organization of the community have agreed to paint the old Ford pumper and overhaul the fire truck, it was announced at a meeting of the Abbottstown Fire Company Tuesday evening.

Robert N. Hoffman and Garry B. Duncan were approved for membership.

A stag party will be held next Friday. Reservations must be made by Monday.

Fire Chief Irvin Bollinger reported there were no fires during September. He said the new nozzles have been delivered and a new hose is expected within a week.

Receipts were $40 and expenditures totaled $260. Seventeen members attended with President Homer Hafer in charge.

If you know "where the chapter is going," your concentrated study will roll along more smoothly. Finally, train your child to take an active part in classroom discussions. The result may surprise your child.

East Berlin

MRS. JANE MILLER

Phone 259-2566

EAST BERLIN—A 150,000-gallon water tank will be erected in the rear of Boyer's Garage, south of town at the borough line. The tank will be filled from the two borough-owned wells located northwest of town. The contract for the tank erection was awarded to Pittsburgh contractor Dismoise. The work will be completed this month.

The Conewago Construction Company, McSherrystown, was awarded the contract for the water line. The 10-inch line will extend from South Alley at the East Berlin Garage to Fifth St. to the East Berlin Shoe factory, supplying it with greater water pressure, particularly for fire purposes. At Third St. a line will extend to the Penn Wood heel plant and a fire hydrant will be erected there. A water line extending the entire length of town will be laid on the west side of Abbottstown and Harrisburg Sts. The eight-inch water line on Harrisburg St. will hook on the old four-inch main at Spangler Alley, adjoining the former Bert Stern property. Work will begin next week. Nine five-inch water plugs will be put in the new line throughout the town.

One block of North Ave., from Third to Fourth St., has been paved and widened.

Charles Eisenhart, formerly of East Berlin, chemical engineer for the American Cyanamid Company, Brewster, Fla., left for Germany to attend chemical meetings there and in seven other countries. Eisenhart, the son of Mrs. Kathryn Eisenhart, W. King St., is triple manager of the company. His wife, Mrs. Shirley Eisenhart, left by jet Tuesday to join her husband for a two-week tour of Europe before returning to this country.

Littlestown

LITTLESTOWN—A colored film on Wyoming was shown at a dinner meeting of the Littlestown Lions Club Thursday evening in Dutterer's Restaurant. Visitors included Lawrence H. Haines, John Haffley, John Stuppel and Archie Tucker, of the Union Mills-Silver Run Club; Clark Spence, Fairfield Club. Guests present were William Jones, Cleveland, O.; Kenneth P. Eyer and Robert B. Millheim, of town. Elmer G. Miller Sr. and Harold E. Bancroft were enrolled as new members. It was decided to raise $100 from among the members to aid the debt reduction at the Beacon Lodge for the Blind, sponsored by District 14-C.

The agriculture committee, comprising of Irvin R. Kindig, John W. LeGore and Holman L. Sell, will be in charge of the program for the next meeting October 19 at 7 p.m.

An informative assembly for the student body of Littlestown High School on the fire escape system was held Thursday afternoon. The system was devised by the Senior class. The signs, exits, alternate exits and the lists of rules and regulations posted in the classrooms were explained by Diane Yealy. The building was divided into five sections and a group of students was assigned to each section to devise an escape system. The chairman of each group explained his system: Donald Arbogast Jr., basement; Rosalie Sager, first floor, south wing; Barbara Long, east wing; Mary Jane Harmon, auditorium; Sally Brown, second floor. A question and answer period followed. There were comments by Frank E. Basehoar, principal. A fire drill was staged at 1:15 p.m. Friday.

The Adams County 4-H senate met Thursday evening at the home of Theron Bair, Littlestown R. 2. An achievement banquet will be held Thursday, November 2, at 6:30 p.m. at the York Springs Elementary School. The next meeting will be held December 28. Following the meeting the group went on a hayride. Refreshments were served. Guests in attendance were Einar Seigurbjornsson, Iceland, and Montserrat Costella, Spain. They are exchange students.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The gamma rays that will be produced by nuclear power reactors in future space communications systems—formerly considered just a nuisance—may have a useful function after all.

In fact, a space scientist suggested today, they might provide communications, for example, between a moon station and an earth satellite.

Temperature is expected to be about 78 degrees, and no rain is forecast.

Extortionist Is Sent To Prison

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A federal judge has sentenced convicted extortionist Nicholas Strone to a 10-year prison term and $10,000 fine.

Judge Joseph P. Willson passed sentence Friday against Strone, head of the Pittsburgh Laborers District Council. Strone was convicted Thursday on charges of extorting $31,274 from contractor William Rider under threat of creating labor trouble.

Strone's attorney, Vincent Casey, said he will appeal the conviction to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals within 10 days. Strone remained free on $500 bail.

Fairfield

MRS. KENNETH SANDERS

FAIRFIELD — Dinner guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. George Inskip included Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Miller and family, Mattawan, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. George Hogue and family, Ellicott City, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Denton Miller, of New Oxford; Miss Anita Inskip, Langhorne, and Randall and Jack Inskip.

Recent guests of B. B. Wortz and family included Mr. and Mrs. James Swope, Fayetteville, and Mr. and Mrs. George Wortz, of Leesburg, Va.

At a reorganizational meeting of the Fairfield Girl Scouts held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Robert Reinhold was named chairman of the annual Girl Scout drive. The Scout Committee is being led by Mrs. Marie Kittinger, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy Ickes, Mrs. Paul McLaughlin, Mrs. Kermit Spence, Mrs. Harry Kane and

TEN YEARS AGO

Sunday Rains Fail To Break Severe Drought: Despite rain Sunday, drought conditions still continue here, a survey showed today. Rain here totaled 0.51 inch.

Numerous farmers were continuing to haul water, as they have for some weeks, since their wells went dry.

Throughout most of the county conservation of water on farms has been an almost summer-long practice, as the water levels in wells dropped lower and lower with the continued dry season. Farm ponds in many sections became muddy pools as the water evaporated and was not replaced during the summer.

Uber-Sanders Nuptials Are Read Saturday

Miss Anna Jacqueline Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Sanders, Gettysburg, and Donald Charles Uber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis V. Uber, Philadelphia, were united in marriage at a double-ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the St. James Lutheran Church, Gettysburg.

A large number of relatives and friends witnessed the wedding which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, pastor of the church. The ceremony took place before an altar decorated with white pompons, baskets of mixed fall flowers and palms.

Local Firemen Observing Fire Prevention Wk.: The Gettysburg Fire department took official cognizance of Fire Prevention Week, which opened today with radio talks over WGET this morning by Fire Chief Donald G. Jacobs and Assistant Chief Donald McSherry.

The three chiefs, Jacobs, McSherry and Donald Staub, also issued a list of "do's and don'ts" today in connection with fire prevention, one of the most important of which, should a fire be discovered, is the "know how" to summon the firemen quickly.

Miss D. Miller, Richard Deane Wed Saturday: Miss Doris May Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, Lincoln Square, became the bride of Richard Eugene Deane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Deane, Seven Stars at a wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Gettysburg Methodist church with the Rev. Henry B. Reiley Jr. officiating.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin with square neckline bordered by lace, with a tight fitting bodice, arm-length leg-of-mutton sleeves and a full hooped skirt with an insert of lace ending in a train. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a coronet of seed pearls and lace. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and Stephanotis.

Allies And Reds Near Agreement On Cease-Fire Talks Site: Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway tonight accepted in principle the Communist proposal that Korean cease-fire talks begin anew near Panmunjon.

The supreme Allied commander said a site in the "immediate vicinity" of that Red outpost, six miles southeast of Kaesong, would meet the "fundamental condition of equality of movement and control." The Reds broke off the talks at Kaesong, August 24.

M. R. Remmel, 74, Expires Early Sunday Morning: Milton R. Remmel, 74, life-long resident of Gettysburg and proprietor of the Remmel's Print Shop, Chambersburg street, died at 5:30 o'clock Sunday morning at his home East Middle St.

Mr. Remmel suffered a heart attack on April 28, and was a patient at the Warner Hospital for three weeks. He recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home, and later was able to take short walks.

Ten days ago Mr. Remmel was taken ill again and last Wednesday suffered a stroke, from which he failed to recover.

Today's Talk

LURE

All of us are led forward or backward by some lure. Gold, love, success, beauty, earned solitude.

To me the leadership of beauty seems to lure all else, for beauty brings nothing but happiness and it soothes and sweetens every inch of life's way.

Just imagine what a world this would be without the lure of beauty. Take away the flowers, the green grass, the trees, the varicolored leaves of autumn, all kindness and nobility from people's hearts, all touch of beauty from the handiwork of men's hands, and what do we? Every drop of incentive for life would be gone. Surround yourself with beautiful things. Think beautiful thoughts. Perform beautiful acts and you cannot help but be happy. For these things are the very atoms of happiness.

The lure of love and beauty will lead you aghast. The lure of mere money, vain glory, and false attraction will only accumulate pain and sorrow for you.

If a man is making much money how very difficult it is to get him to talk or think of anything else. Yet how cheap and material is the fight for gold alone! Even high intelligence will not be ensnared. In fact intelligence understands how futile is the task of mere money making.

I like the lure behind the love of books—always leading you to fresh minds and aspiring moods. How the lure of new countries grips.

The advent of the car and plane has poured beauty into millions of lives. They have taken people into far countries and into the hills and vast open spaces, and stirred minds that for years had become dormant and too easily satisfied with their surroundings.

Then there is the lure of loyalty—binding friends together and making human beings assets to one another.

MOTIVES

We see the deed and not the thought behind it,
The grim results and not the motive sweet;
And yet, perhaps, if we would look to find it
We'd catch some hint of glory in defeat.

We see the broken treasure little fingers
Reached high to clutch, and
Topped to the floor;
Yet in the child mind this injustice lingers;
We never asked just what she wished it for.

She'd reached for it because it was so pretty;
"I'll serve my mother's tea on that," thought she;
And so for love she blundered.
Oh, the pity!
The broken dish was all that we could see.

Deeds and results our actions are commanding,
But could we know the motives hidden deep
And read the minds which cry for understanding,
We'd blunder less; and more of love we'd reap.

Warriors Outclassed 25-7 By Hanover Nighthawks In Final Game Of Long Series

October 20 Game
Carlisle at Hanover.

A disappointing performance through the first three periods of play proved fatal to the Gettysburg High School Warriors Friday night when they dropped a 25-7 decision to the improved Hanover Nighthawks before approximately 3,000 fans at Hanover.

The Nighthawks' tough ground attack was just too much for the Warriors who took sole possession of the cellar in the South Penn League and it looks as though that's the spot they will finish in when the league folds at the end of this season.

The final tabulation in the interschool rivalry which began in 1927 will read Hanover 21 wins, Gettysburg 11 and one tie. Hanover next year will play in the York County Scholastic League while Gettysburg shifts to the Blue Mountain League.

After Hanover scored with 3:35 left in the first quarter they were never in trouble. By half time they had increased their lead to 18-0. Gettysburg scored about midway in the fourth quarter after the Nighthawks held a commanding 25-0 lead.

TWO LONG GAINS
The game was rather dull as far as the spectators were concerned. Only two plays brought the crowd to its feet, one a 39-yard run by fullback Bob Shue who shook off two would-be tacklers after slanting off left tackle for a touchdown, and an end-run pass play by the Warriors' left-handed halfback Dick Utz throwing to Gary Nett for a 38-yard play in the final quarter.

The Warriors were unable to muster any penetrating attack throughout the tilt except for their scoring drive. Although they didn't punt in the second half, they lost the ball on downs and two interceptions while Hanover was grounding out first downs and eating up time.

After an exchange of punts in the first period, the Hawks' quarterback Jack Shafer returned Jim Davies' second punt 15 yards to the Warriors' 30. Three penalties halted potential drives by Gettysburg in the quarter and also hurt them on a good punt by Davies. But after Shafer's return, six plays got three first downs to put the ball on the 6. Shafer rolled out from quarterback position and scored with 4:30 left in the quarter. Greg Platt's placement attempt on the point was no good.

SHUE BREAKS AWAY
After Davies' third punt in the first quarter, the Nighthawks started moving from their own 49 and, following an exchange of 15-yard penalties which put the ball on the Warriors' 39, and gave Hanover a first down, Shue made his touchdown run of 39 yards with about 10 minutes left in the half, making the score 12-0. Pratt again missed the point.

The Warriors were unable to move the ball again and following Davies' punt and a 15-yard penalty, the Nighthawks began work on their own 22. After five running plays, Shue took a pitch-out around right end and scampered from his own 45 to the Warriors' 10. In the process, he eluded three Gettysburg tacklers and was finally nailed after a 45-yard run.

But the Nighthawks' attack stalled here, ending with a 10-yard screen pass to the seven which wasn't enough for the first down.

Gettysburg took over and when Davies' punted on fourth down from his own 13, Shafer returned it 25 yards to the 13 again. Five plays later Shue plunged over for the TD with less than two minutes remaining to make the halftime count read 18-0.

Following the kickoff, Gettysburg completed two passes and thus picked up its first down of the game.

CARL INTERCEPTS
The Nighthawks received the second half kickoff and were forced to punt, but Gettysburg was unable to move, and on a fourth and seven from midfield, Davies threw a pass from punt formation. That was intercepted by John Carl who returned it to the 35 of the Warriors. A clipping penalty on the play put the pigskin on the 50 where the Nighthawks again hit for pay dirt. Ten plays, all on the ground, took the ball to the one, where Carl plunged for Hanover's third touchdown. Pratt's kick this time was good and the score read 25-0 with about 3:20 left in the third quarter.

Gettysburg's series of downs was halted by an interception of a Davies aerial at the close of the third quarter.

WARRIORS SCORE
Following Carl's punt which Jim McClellan returned to his own 42, Gettysburg went on to score its only touchdown. A Davies-to-Bob Beeler pass netted a first down and 12 yards. Davies sneaked for five more and then Dick Utz, on an end-run pass, threw to right end Gary Nett who had gotten behind the Nighthawk defenders. Nett was caught on the five. On the next play, left half McClellan slid off two tacklers behind the line of scrimmage and just managed to get into the end zone for the Warriors' only score. Paul Plank made good on the placement.

The final six minutes of play saw reserves playing out the contest between the 30-yard stripes.

DUANE LOSS FELT
The Warriors were hurt by the loss of quarterback Tom Duane in the second period and sub Jim Davies was called on to handle the duties the rest of the evening. It was quite evident that Duane's loss meant much to the Warriors who netted only 57 yards on the ground, less than the total against powerful Chambersburg last week.

The Warriors return home next week when they face another old-time rival and tough foe in Mechanicsburg.

NAVY UPSETS MIAMI; PENN STATE WINNER

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—The World Series plunged into its third game today with the New York Yankees fretting over the landscaping of compact Crosley Field and the steamed-up Cincinnati Reds scenting a second successive series victory.

Despite their 2-1 betting edge, the pressure definitely was on the aching Yankees as the series, after a one-day layoff, resumed in perfect weather before an overflow crowd of 32,000 mainly wild-eyed Redleg partisans.

Starting time is 1 p.m. EST. with the game to be telecast and broadcast nationally by NBC.

HIGH PITCH FINES
Compared with New York where neither of the first two games drew capacity, the series fever is burning at terrific pitch in this bio River metropolis.

Gaudy and giant signs everywhere exhort a Redleg victory, and the man in the street is a red-hot baseball fan. Tickets are going at scalpers' prices, one businessman being arrested for exacting $600—$50 a ticket—for a dozen $7.50 seats.

A typical series touch appeared in a downtown restaurant window. It read: "Special today: Roast crow for our N.Y. friends."

Both clubs were down to their No. 3 first-line pitchers—Cincinnati's Bob Purkey, 32, a knuckleballer, facing New York's Bill Stafford, who just completed his first full major-league season. Purkey had a 16-12 regular season mark, and Stafford, also a right-hander, had 14-9.

FRESHLY PAINTED PARK
In Friday's workout in freshly, all-white painted Crosley Park, the Yankees were obviously concerned over the lush infield grass and the sharply-terraced outfield perimeter which, it is said, is mounded over utility pipes.

It was reported the quite high infield grass, which would slow down rollers considerably, would be trimmed before game time. Consensus is that the Yankees have a better defensive infield than the Reds and would profit less from any grassy assistance.

As for the outfield terrace, it begins to rise some 20 feet from the walls and the pitch is especially sharp in left field where Yankee Yogi Berra customarily plays his "side-saddle" defensive game.

MARIS NO HELP
This is a game in which the benched Mickey Mantle could turn the tide for the Yankees, who have had absolutely no help from their famed and fabled M&M home-run combination. Roger Maris, who set the all-time season homer mark of 61, has yet to hit the ball out of the infield in this series.

Maris failed to reach the Crosley Field 360-foot right-field bleacher mark in Friday's batting drill. But Mantle, who missed the two New York games because of an infected hip, swung an explosive bat in practice. He boomed four balls into the right-field stands, two into the center-field stands—batting left handed—and lofted two over the left-field wall at the 340-foot mark hitting right-handed.

Yankee Mgr. Ralph Houk said he would not decide on whether Mantle could start until today's pregame batting drill, but added: "Although I'm not ready to say he'll play, it looks less doubtful now."

CHARGERS OUT TO HOLD LEAD
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
San Diego makes its second straight trip into the East Saturday to get the American Football shortened schedule on the way.

The Chargers, only unbeaten club in the league, will be after their fifth victory, with Boston the proposed victim.

There are only three games on the schedule this weekend, with New York, secure on top of the Eastern Division, and Oakland, in a tie for last in the Western Division, taking a rest.

OTHER GAMES
Dallas journeys to Denver, and Buffalo invades Houston for Sunday afternoon games.

San Diego went into the East last week and ran into a hornet's nest at Buffalo. The Chargers, slowed to a walk by Buffalo's tenacious defense, had to rely on defense and kicking to win 19-11.

Boston may offer about the same problem. The Patriots haven't been winning much more than Buffalo, but they have been giving the opposition plenty of trouble. New York edged Boston 21-20 and 37-30 and the Patriots crushed Denver 45-17 and nosed out Buffalo 23-21.

RESENTS CRITICISM
The actual premium lists have not been officially presented to the new clubs and will not be until the day after the World Series, both General Manager Paul Richards of Houston and President George Weiss of New York are aware of the players' identity.

National League President Warren Giles, disturbed by open criticism of the quality of players expressed by Richards, presided at a special meeting of general managers Friday at which both Richards and Weiss were present.

"I explained to New York and Houston that in addition to the regular draft lists, there still are 16 special or premium players to be selected from," said Giles.

BLASTED BY RICHARDS
"The eight existing clubs said the lists were the best they could give," Giles continued.

Richards, who earlier had blasted the list as inadequate, accepted this explanation and said, "Under the circumstances, I have no comment. I have said a lot already. I'm holding off until later on."

Weiss, former general manager of the New York Yankees, said "of course, you're never satisfied."

PRESSURE ON ACHING YANKS IN THIRD GAME

G-BURG EDGES ENGINEERS IN SOCCERMATCH

A screaming line shot off the foot of Junior Eddie Lucas from the left side of the goal gave the Gettysburg College soccer team a thrilling 4-3 win over Lehigh University in double overtime Friday afternoon on the Bullets' field before a large crowd.

The contest marked the opening of the 1961 season for the Bullets' boaters while Lehigh won its encounter against Muhlenberg Tuesday.

With the score in a 3-3 deadlock, Gettysburg worked the ball well in the first over-time period. With 3:03 minutes gone by in the five-minute period, King Gore drifted the ball to Jerry Farrow who in turn snapped it into the open to Lucas who rammed in the goal.

GET EARLY LEAD
Gettysburg jumped to a 2-0 lead midway through the second frame. With 8:00 gone by in the game, Ray Truex fired a pass to Ed Burchell to the right of the cage where the speedy center-forward banged in the first Bullet point.

At the 11:00-minute mark of the second stanza, Burchell assisted Kerry Johnson on a goal from the far left side of the cage. Three minutes after Gettysburg had scored its second point, the Engineers cracked the scoring column. Pete Ignall rammed through a shot just off center assisted by Harold Arbo.

Lehigh came back in the second half to knot the count at 2-2 when Doug Feltman assisted Ignall on the goal. With 1:30 remaining in the third period Gettysburg scored to go out in front 3-2. King Gore tallied on a pass from Sophomore Rick Taylor. Harold Arbo retaliated for Lehigh with 1:30 left in the game and rammed through an unassisted shot to knot the count at 3-3. Gettysburg then moved in for the kill in the first over-time period.

Steve Cox turned in a fine job at goal for the Bullets, coming up with 26 saves. John Stevens turned away 15 shots for the Engineers.

Coach Lou Hammann's booters will tangle with Washington College Tuesday afternoon on the local field.

The lineups:
Gettysburg: Cox, RB; Sturges, G; Gerkin, LB; Farrow, RH; Lucas, CH; Croston, LH; Truex, OR; Taylor, LR; Burchell, CF; Gore, IL; Johnson, OL; Arbo.

4 UNBEATEN HIGH ELEVEN'S UPSET FRIDAY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Big upsets dumped four Eastern Pennsylvania scholastic football powers from the ranks of the unbeaten Friday night.

In one of the biggest surprises, Allentown Allen walloped Norristown's Bishop Kenrick, 19-0, to snap Kenrick's 18-game winning streak.

The loss leaves Clifton Heights of Delaware County in the No. 1 spot in the front of the state's long-run winners.

Other upsets found Wilkes-Barre Meyers squeezing past East Penn Conference power Hazleton 15-13. Sunbury stunning Coal Twp., 27-12, and Allentown Dieruff whipping West Scranton, 20-13.

The Sunbury-Coal Twp. clash was a key contest in the southern division of the sprawling East Penn Conference which had shaped up early in the season to be a five-team battle. Another important division game found title contender Mount Carmel defeating Kulpmont, 38-6.

BIG SURPRISE
Cedar Cliff came up with the big surprise of the night in the Central Pennsylvania area, edging previously undefeated Chambersburg, 6-0. Central Dauphin defeated Steelton, 26-12, and Harrisburg Harris beat Harrisburg's Bishop McDevitt, 13-6.

Beaver Falls, defending WPIAL Class AA champion, made it 16 in a row and five straight for the season with an easy 20-6 triumph over Butler.

Lock Haven also extended its winning streak to 15 straight, defeating scrappy Huntingdon, 7-6.

In a game that may have settled the title in the brand new Skyline Conference, Punxsutawney downed Indiana, 13-6. And McKeesport knocked Har-Brack out of the WPIAL-AA race with a commanding 27-14 victory.

OTHER GAMES
In a rundown of other key games in the state:
East—Bethlehem and Notre Dame tied 13-13; Lebanon Catholic whipped Lancaster Catholic, 30-0; Elizabethtown edged Columbia, 20-14; Pottsville Nativity clobbered Shamokin Catholic, 27-2; Sayre beat Athens, 24-6; Neshaunim overpowered Lower Bucks, 59-0; Conshohocken rolled over West Chester, 26-18, and Coatesville upended Conestoga 26-7.

Mid-state—Lewistown dumped State College, 14-0; Tyrone eked out a 37-32 victory over Bellefonte, and Mechanicsburg defeated Lower Dauphin, 28-6.

West—Midland whipped Monaca, 31-0; New Castle downed Aliquippa, 27-18; Sharon beat Ambridge 28-7; Farrell walloped Ellwood City 26-0; Greensburg edged Conneville, 10-7; Albert Gallatin shellacked Scottdale, 47-19; Washington shutout Mount Lebanon, 28-0; Northern Cambria overpowered DuBois, 45-7; Meadville defeated Warren, 20-6; Greenville upended Oil City, 14-0; Captain Jack blanked Moshannon Valley, 20-0; Bradford and Corry played to a scoreless deadlock; Erie Strong Vincent squeezed past Harborcreek, 21-7; Portage whitewashed Bedford 20-0, and Somerset rammed to a 41-0 triumph over Everett.

Zettle Urges Spraying In November, December To Prevent Spread Chickweed

By FRANK S. ZETTEL

Adams County Farm Agent

This fall's weather has been ideal for spread of chickweed so spraying in November or December is suggested for effective control. Use Chloro-IPC at the rate of one pound of actual Chloro-IPC in 25 gallons of water per acre.

FRANK S. ZETTEL

Chloro-IPC is a liquid and contains four pounds of actual Chloro-IPC per gallon. Thus, two pints of the material will make one pound of actual Chloro-IPC. If used at heavier rates than one pound per acre, the Chloro-IPC will eliminate all grasses including timothy, bromegrass and orchard-grass in alfalfa stands. For best results use Chloro-IPC spray when the temperature is less than 50 degrees.

Another chemical which can be used on August seedlings of alfalfa and birdsfoot trefoil is water soluble Dinitro, sold under trade names. Spraying should be done when chickweed is less than two inches tall, generally in October or November. When the water soluble Dinitro is used, the rate is three pints in 25 gallons of water per acre.

For best results use Dinitro spray when the temperature is 65 degrees or above.

Vacuum fluctuations at the end of the test during machine milking are a most important source of dairy herd mastitis. All dairymen are urged to keep milking machines in the best possible condition to lessen mastitis in Adams County dairy herds. These questions will serve as a guide in checking the milking machine:

Are the milking machine vacuum lines large enough? The minimum size pipe for any installation should not be less than one inch. Three and four-unit installations require at least a one-and-a-quarter-inch vacuum line. It is impossible to prevent vacuum fluctuations in small, partially clogged, vacuum lines.

HERD MASTITIS

Is the pump capacity sufficient to maintain a steady, even level at all times? Worn out or undersized pumps are common sources of herd mastitis. Be sure the vacuum gauge on the milking system registers a steady, even level of vacuum throughout the milking operation.

Are the vacuum regulators working properly? Vacuum regulators must be correctly installed and perfectly clean to operate correctly. They should admit air constantly into the vacuum system through the milking operations.

Few things can put dairymen out of business more quickly than heard mastitis problems. Concentrate on managed milking... scientific milking with the machine in topnotch operating condition.

SILO FILLING DANGEROUS

Silo fillers' disease, with dangerous to both humans and animals, may result when ensilage is put into the silo. If the silage is left undisturbed for a few days nitrous oxide gas may be formed beneath the surface of the fermenting silage. This combine with available oxygen to form nitrogen dioxide, a yellow gas 2 1/2 times heavier than air. This gas collects on top of the silage and overflows downward into chutes.

Inhalation of these fumes causes irritation of the nose, throat and lungs and an asthma-like reaction. No other effects are noticed for a few hours, then a lung congestion develops which can be rapidly fatal or relatively mild. Some people and animals recover without any after-effects. Others develop repeated attacks of lung congestion with a gradual destruction of lung tissue.

To protect yourself and your cattle, follow these few precautions:

Before you go into a silo to refill it after it has "settled" for a few days, turn on the blower for 10 minutes to drive out any gases.

GOOD CIRCULATION

Be sure there is good air circulation around the base of the silo.

Be careful that silo gases do not drain into stables.

Cattle standing nearest the chute are in the danger spots.

Keep silo seepage away from animals; this juice may have a high nitrate content which is deadly to animals if they drink it.

There can't be too much air circulation around a silo which has the first month after the silo is filled. Exercise extreme caution when entering a silo which has been recently filled.

It is poor logic to grease, adjust or clean out field choppers or silage blower when they are running; the machine may mistake you for a cornstalk.

Keep the shield on the power takeoff unit; it might turn out to be the most important part of your tractor.

If the silage you put up now is to be any good next winter, you have to be around to take it out of the silo and feed it to the cows, so be careful!

Ever add chopped walnuts and raisins to chocolate drop cookies? You'll find these flavors go together well.

Farmers Home Administration Implementing Credit Program

The farmers Home Administration is moving rapidly to carry out the broad-scale improvements in the supervised agricultural credit program brought about by the Agriculture Act of 1961, Acting State Director Edward B. Angle has announced.

Area meetings were scheduled this week with the agency's field staff in the state to review the new regulations prior to placing the program in effect October 15.

Mr. Angle said that Clarence A. Myers, state staff loan officer, is assisting him in meeting with the group to explain the changes. Approximately 70 Farmers Home Administration credit personnel attended.

3 MAJOR ITEMS

The expanded rural housing program, under which owners of tracts of nonfarm land in small rural communities as well as farmers may apply for loans to build or remodel homes, was discussed.

The role of the Farmers Home Administration in the Rural Areas Development Program was a third major item on the agenda. Recently the agency has been assigned the responsibility of coordinating the technical services of the USDA in the Rural Areas Development program.

"Never in the history of the Farmers Home Administration has there been such an over-all upgrading of the supervised agricultural credit service," Acting State Director Angle pointed out. "This will give the thousands of farmers whose equities have been wiped out by the low net returns of recent years an opportunity to obtain needed financing."

FARMERS IN TROUBLE

"The credit improvements will also mean much to those rural communities that are fighting to regain their economic strength through the Rural Areas Development Program. Farmers in those communities will have greater access to development and adjustment loans, rural residents will have access to credit for housing and domestic water supply systems."

"The funds spent for improvement will spark rural business and provide employment for carpenters, electricians and other workmen."

"The revised regulations reflect the increasing capital needs of without taking a mortgage on the farm.

LOANS TO GROUPS

The authority to make real estate loans solely for refinancing has been placed on a permanent basis.

Loans to groups of farmers for the development of rural community water systems, irrigation and drainage systems now have a ceiling of $500,000 when made from appropriated funds and $1 million when insured loan funds are used. The previous limit was $250,000 on both direct and insured loans.

Rural community water systems may now be made to associations serving farmers and rural residents without the prior restriction that farmers be the main users of the water supply system.

Emergency loans can be made to farmers who need credit as the result of a natural disaster in areas where the disaster—such as a flash flood—was not widespread enough to warrant an emergency area designation.

FUNDS FOR EXPANSION

"The increase in the operating loan limits will enable the agency to more adequately serve the credit needs of family farmers," Angle said. "The technical revolution has greatly increased the amount of capital farmers have to invest in their operations. Many young farmers who are just getting started and established farmers who need to make major adjustments in their operations will benefit from the modernizing of this credit regulation."

"The broadening of the authority to make farm purchase and enlargement loans will also help young farmers as well as others. In the past many young farmers were unable to obtain a loan to buy their family farm simply because the farm was worth more than the average family farm in the county in which it is located."

"All of the provisions of the new law, to the extent that they make the program more flexible and enable the Farmers Home Administration to serve the credit needs of family farmers who were previously ineligible, will increase the effectiveness of supervised credit in rural areas development."

One new provision that should prove especially useful in growing communities is the authority to buy and enlarge small farms. There are many instances where young farmers who have off-farm employment to supplement their farm income can use such loans to gradually acquire the land resources they need for successful farming."

Loans may now be made to farmers with off-farm income to buy and enlarge small farms. Previously such loans could be made only on farms large enough to support a family without the aid of off-farm income.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION APPROVED FOR THE FIRST TIME BY THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA HAS PASSED THE FOLLOWING AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF PENNSYLVANIA: SECTION 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

SECTION 1. A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article three, section sixteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania authorizing cash refunds without appropriation in certain cases.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows: Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 16. No money shall be paid out of the treasury, except on appropriation by law, on warrant issued by the proper officer; but cash refunds of taxes, licenses, fees and other charges paid or collected, but not legally due, may be paid, as provided by law, without appropriation, from the fund into which they were paid, on warrant of the proper officer.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 1.

E. James Trimarchi, Jr., Secretary of the Commonwealth

SECTION 2. A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article four, section three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania making the Governor eligible to succeed himself for one additional term.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows: Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 3. The Governor shall hold his office, during four years from the third Tuesday of January next ensuing his election. Except in the case where he is in office when this amendment is adopted, he shall be eligible to succeed himself for one additional term.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 2.

SECTION 3. A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article four, section three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, changing the time at which the Secretary of Internal Affairs takes office.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows: Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 3. The Secretary of Internal Affairs shall take office on the third Tuesday of January next following his election. He shall be chosen by the qualified electors of the State at general elections. No person elected to the office of Auditor General or State Treasurer shall be capable of holding the same office for two consecutive terms.

That no inconvenience may arise from the change in the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in order to carry it into complete operation it is declared that:

The Secretary of Internal Affairs who may be in office when this amendment is adopted shall serve until the end of the term for which elected. The term of the Secretary of Internal Affairs first elected after this amendment is adopted, or who is elected at the end of the term of the Secretary of Internal Affairs then in office.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 3.

SECTION 4. A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article nine, section one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to exempt certain blind, paraplegic and double or quadruple amputee veterans from the payment of certain real and personal taxes.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows: Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 1. All taxes shall be uniform, upon the same class of subjects, within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, and shall be levied and collected under general laws; but the General Assembly may, by general laws, exempt from taxation public property used for public purposes, actual places of religious worship, places of burial not used or held for private or corporate profit, institutions of purely public charity and real and personal property owned, occupied, and used by any branch, post, or camp of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, and marines; and the General Assembly may, by general laws, set up standards and qualifications for private forest reserves, and make special provision for the taxation thereof.

Citizens and residents of this Commonwealth, who served in any war or armed conflict in which the United States was engaged and were honorably discharged or released under honorable circumstances from active service, shall be exempt from the payment of all real property taxes upon the residence occupied by the said citizens and residents of this Commonwealth imposed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any of its political subdivisions if, as a result of military service, they are blind, paraplegic or double or quadruple amputees, and if the State Veterans' Commission determines that such persons are in need of the tax exemptions granted herein.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 4.

SECTION 5. A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to article thirteen, section one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania permitting county treasurers to succeed themselves.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows: Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

Section 1. County officers shall consist of sheriffs, coroners, prothonotaries, registers of wills, recorders of deeds, commissioners, treasurers, surveyors, auditors or controllers, clerks of courts, district attorneys and such others as may, from time to time, be established by law.

A true copy of Joint Resolution No. 5.

"The Tall Man": Barry Sullivan

Clu Gulager

BARRY SULLIVAN, star of NBC-TV's "Tall Man" now in its second year, was very much against doing a western series only a few years ago.

"I figured westerns were waning," he said. "I'm not embarrassed to admit I was wrong. On a tour of 30 cities with Bette grade the western on TV, but the western still remains a great story-telling form. In a world which has come to be so impersonal — so full of pushbutons — the personal, uncomplicated relationships in the western are understood and relished by people of all nations. In the Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid; they asked about the women in the pioneer days, and wanted to know pertinent facts about the settling of the west.

"Basically," says Barry, "this worldwide interest in Americana seems natural to me. Americans in Paris will flip over the show at the Lido. But I don't think Parisians themselves flip over it. Well, here's an example for you. I went to a record shop on the Champs Elysees. There wasn't one customer in the place. But there were 16 pretty little shopgirls. You know what they were doing? They were watching an old Hoot Gibson western on TV — and they were entranced? So use your own arithmetic about the TV cowboy. But I tell you, somebody out there likes us — from Suez to Singapore."

Having performed in every medium has given Barry Sullivan breadth and perspective. And this always prompts an interviewer to ask the obvious question: Which is your favorite medium in which to work?

"ALL OF 'EM"

"All of 'em," smiles Sullivan. "I'm an actor, and it doesn't much matter whether the audience is sitting in a theater or lounging in their living rooms. Just so long as they're out there some place!"

Sullivan has seen a lot of the acting game since the post-depression days of radio. He was one of the fortunate few who worked steadily. In fact, he has worked constantly: Soap operas, summer stock movies, Broadway and two TV series which dwindled out.

The "good" in yesterday, according to Sullivan, was in the doing and the living. The "good" in TV today is found in the limitless opportunity it has opened for youngsters.

"Actually, there's value in every era," says Sullivan. "In the days of radio drama most of the work was done by relatively few actors and many of these added to their range by using two or more voices. This didn't give newcomers much of a chance to work into the field."

"Television has given young

Coast-To-Coast On TV

For actor Mark Richman, chasing criminals and fighting hoodlums should be a snap when compared with his former occupation — professional football.

Richman, who stars as Nicholas Cain in "Cain's Hundred," NBC-TV's new action series (Tuesdays 10-11 p.m., NYT), captained one of Philadelphia's entries in the Eastern Professional Football League for two years before his knee was seriously injured in the last game of the 1946 season.

"It was a pretty rough way to make a living," Richman remarked. "But I loved it and would do it over again."

His prowess as a fullback was recognized when he was named all-city fullback after captaining his school's championship team.

After his professional football career was ended with the "knee injury" he entered the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and graduated four years later with a B.S. in Pharmacy.

"I'm probably the only actor licensed to practice pharmacy in two states — New York and Pennsylvania," he commented.

Degree in hand, he went to work as a pharmacist and drug store manager in Rosemont, Pa. Simultaneously he joined a little theater group. A year later he quit pharmacy to enter summer stock. After a few successful years in the theater, Richman's screen career was launched when William Wyler saw him perform and invited him to New York for a screen test. The test was successful and he was cast in an important role in "Friendly Persuasion." Since then, his credits have piled higher and higher.

Richman hopes to be a director of plays and feature films, and adds: "I have already written, shot and edited a short movie."

DISTAFF RACER: Corna Day, 23-year-old auto racer and rodeo rider from Utah, plays a featured femme role in "Winchester Quarantine," new segment being aired on "The Cheyenne Show" October 9.

CHET HUNTLEY: You never know where your big break will unknowns a boost and, contrary to radio — in which faces meant nothing — TV has brought fame to young actors because viewers see them, not just hear their voices. In "Tall Man" we've discovered what I call 'the outside factor.' This is the actor who is not well known but if a definite asset to the running stars in the series. In our show it's young Clu Gulager, an Okie who studied at the Sorbonne. TV is a great showcase for young talent and the newcomers provide a priceless counterpoint to actors like myself."

come from. Witness Chet Huntley who with David Brinkley forms TV's top news team on television today.

It was back in 1955 when Huntley was called on as a vacation substitute for John Cameron Swayze who was taking time off from the then "New Caravan" program to take a trip to Germany. Teaming Huntley with Brinkley at that time proved the turning point, cemented a team that has since gone on to win the highest honors in the news field.

THERE WERE two Jackie Coopers working on the "Hennessey" set during recent location shooting in Hawaii for its third season. Young Jackie Jr., a 15-year-old sophomore at Hoover High School in Glendale, Calif., joined his famous father, producer, director and star of "Hennessey," on the four-episode filming trip to the island of Oahu. He served as a general handyman for the production crew during the shooting of footage at such scattered sites as Pearl Harbor, Barbers Point Naval Air Station, Hanauma Bay and Waikiki.

VETERAN ENGLISH actor Sir Cedric Hardwicke, who appears in his first television series, costarring with Gertrude Berg in "Mrs. G. Goes to College," (Wednesdays 9:30-10 p.m., EDT, CBS-TV), became Sir Cedric in 1934, when he was somewhat dubiously knighted by King George V. Recalling the auspicious moment, Sir Cedric reveals that the King, somewhat unsurely, proclaimed, "I dub the knight, Sir Samuel Pickwick."

HARENAPING: A bigger-than-life-size Bugs Bunny cardboard cutout — about "Harvey" size — was spirited away from the lobby of the Warner Bros. studio entrance. The cutout promoting the ABC-TV cartoon show "just disappeared," according to the security office.

Q. Who are the voices in "The Flintstones"? Mr. J. M.

A. Alan Reed is the voice of Fred Flintstone; Jean Vander Pyl is Wilma Flintstone; Mel Blanc is Barney Rubble; Bea Benadaret is Betty Rubble.

Q. What are the actors who played "Amos and Andy" doing lately? I think I read they're going to be in a new series. Mrs. A. T.

A. The Gosden and Correll voices of "Amos and Andy" are to be used in a new cartoon animation series, "Calvin and the Colonel."

As midshipmen, 1,600 future Navy officers took part in summer training with units of the U. S. Pacific Fleet in 1961.

THE LAW . . . Barry Sullivan stars as Deputy Sheriff Pat Garrett, friendly enemy of Billy the Kid as played by Clu Gulager in "Tall Man," western series on NBC-TV Saturdays at 8:30 p.m.

Davis I discovered that, in every area where there was only one or two TV stations, they aired nothing but westerns in the evening hours. I asked the men who owned the stations why they preempted other shows in favor of the oat-burners, and their answer was simple. Their viewers had made it clear that they wanted to see them more than any other type of show."

Recently in Rome while filming the movie, "Light in the Piazza" with Yvette Mimieux and Olivia de Havilland, he was further convinced of the continued worldwide appeal of westerns.

TALKED TALL MAN

"A group of tourists had been watching us shoot the movie and, during a break, they came over to talk to me. There were some Americans in the group but most of them were English, Japanese and some were residents of Africa."

Unlike Americans, who recognize Barry from his movie work in addition to video, the Europeans know him from his television exposure only. His TV series, "Mr. X," is now playing in England.

"But it was mostly 'Tall Man' that they talked about," continues Sullivan. "We've done 'Tall Man' trailers for Japan and next year the show goes to England and possibly Nigeria. It's top-rated not only in Houston and Phoenix — but also in Sweden. This suggests, if nothing else, that the appeal of the oft-maligned shoot-'em-up is a universal affair."

EXTENSIVE IMPACT

Sullivan feels that the enthusiasm shown by the Europeans indicates the impact of westerns around the world — violence and all.

"I think the reason is pretty clear. We may tend to down-states, we tend to take what we're doing for granted. Even tire of it, as some critics do. But other lands love our sagebrush and saddle stories."

ASKED MANY QUESTIONS

Sullivan was intrigued by the questions asked of him by the tourists. They were curious about the relationship between Sheriff

OATBURNER . . . Clu Gulager is Billy the Kid in "Tall Man," co-starring with Barry Sullivan.

Any Questions?

Q. Was that Marjorie Lord who played the part of the girl friend in "The Parent Trap"? Mary W.

A. No, that was Joanna Barnes, but they do look a lot alike.

Q. Who played the mother and father in the movie version of "Father of the Bride"? Maureen K.

A. Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy.

Q. How many children does Stephen McNally have? Mrs. Mary L.

A. He has eight.

Q. Who was Dick Powell married to before June Allyson? June B.

A. Joan Blondell.

MITCH MILLER: On the same day that "Sing Along With Mitch" was being taped at the NBC-TV color studios in Brooklyn, Hallmark's "Hall of Fame" was filming "The Joke and the Valley" on an adjoining set. During a break in the play, Keenan Wynn and several of the actors wandered over to the Mitch Miller rehearsal. Standing around in their costumes and false beards, the actors whistled and tapped their feet to the music pouring out of Studio One. Mitch spotted the bewhiskered group and then he quipped, "I see you fellows are using my make-up man, too!"

RICHARD BOONE and the "Have Gun, Will Travel" series, beginning fifth season on the CBS Television Network, have a pair of unusual episodes coming up. In one, Paladin meets California Don (Hans Conried), who thinks he is Don Quixote, armored suit, lance and all. The other has Paladin joining the scuba-diving trend as he dives for stolen gold—only his gear is circa 1870.

GOP LEADER SUCCUMBS TO HEART ATTACK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former sheriff Austin Meehan, whose political power in the Republican Party extended far beyond the only elective office he ever held, died Thursday night of an apparent heart attack.

The 64-year-old wealthy general contractor, who was the leader of the populous and powerful 35th Ward from 1937 until 1957, was stricken while addressing a Lions Club meeting in nearby Rockledge.

Both Republican and Democratic leaders expressed shock and sorrow on hearing of the death of the man who some 50,000 persons turned out to honor less than four weeks ago at the third annual "Aus Meehan Day" in Willow Grove Park.

SON OF IMMIGRANT

The son of an Irish immigrant, Meehan began working in his father's paving contracting business at the age of 14, eventually took over the firm and entered politics as a hobby.

Meehan was elected sheriff in 1943 and held the post until 1951 but his power reached into the final say on policy, appointments, contracts and candidates. Political aspirants eventually had to "See Aus."

Meehan formally resigned his post in the 35th ward in 1957 but he still had a strong voice in Republican matters.

In 1959 he was instrumental in securing the Republican mayoralty candidacy for Harold E. Stassen but he continually denied his vital role in the party.

Stassen was defeated by incumbent Democratic Mayor Richardson Dilworth who was among the many who extended their sympathies on hearing of Meehan's death.

RIVAL OF SCOTT

Meehan was named to head the Philadelphia delegation to the Republican National Convention in July, 1960, but the real power in the delegation was Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a political rival of Meehan.

While Wilbur Hamilton held the title of GOP city chairman in Philadelphia, most political observers felt that Meehan had held the power. Meehan was said to have dominated the party meeting last March at which GOP candidates for district attorney and city controller were selected for this November's election.

Claims West Has Lost Berlin To Reds

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—A Republican congressman claims the West has lost Berlin to the Communists.

And when a group of Republicans formed the Republican Alliance recently, they challenged Meehan for control of the party rather than Hamilton.

Meehan is survived by his widow and eight children.

In a speech at a dinner here Thursday night, U. S. Rep. James Van Zandt, R-Pa., declared that Berlin was lost to the West when the Communists built the wall that divides that city.

Van Zandt, who only recently returned from a visit to Berlin, said:

"Had I been in charge in Berlin, there would have been no wall built. The tanks we have in Berlin would have knocked it down, especially where there were streets."

Van Zandt spoke at a dinner

STORK NIPS JACK BENNY

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP)—Comedian Jack Benny loosened the grip on his billfold and the stork was quick to take advantage.

In a rash moment Benny announced he would open a $39 bank account for every child born marking the start of the Altoona Community Chest fund drive.

Thursday in Waukegan, his home town, and 13 mothers delivered 13 takers.

Births in Waukegan have been averaging four a day, but the redoubtable miser of radio-TV fame apparently picked the wrong day to step out of character.

"I'm getting worried. This is costing me money," said Benny when informed of the mounting births late Thursday night. He retired before the final count was announced.

In keeping with his favorite age—39—the $39 is to be left in trust for 39 years. Illinois banks compound interest semi-annually and at 3 per cent each of the 39-year-olds will collect $124.57 in 2000 A.D.

Benny was in Waukegan to tape a television show in a new junior high school named in his honor.

In 1917 the United States produced a million bushels of soybeans. This year output approaches 600 million bushels. Largest soy growing states are Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Missouri and Minnesota.
